

I oppose weakening the Telephone Privacy Law. Since I have been on the list I have had less stressful days and more quiet time. Someone should do something about these business calls though. Their policy is to call on the hour until they receive payment, which the comment by the consumer is on the screen of the last call made and they ask the same questions over.